Chuga, Chuga . . . Chuga, Chuga . . . Choo! Choo! "All aboard!" Come join the fast moving LVA Express as we get "On the Right Track" for a train ride through the 1979-1980 school year. From depot to depot the LVA Express will take you through the highlights of the year.

The LVA Express has traveled to Lake Placid to catch the performances of the U.S. Hockey Team and Eric Heiden. The Iowa Hawkeyes took us to Indianapolis and the Final Four of the NCAA Basketball Tournament. Elsewhere on the world front things were not as cheery. Iranian militants held 50 Americans hostage in their own embassy and Russia invaded Afghanistan. Talk of a boycott of the Olympics in Moscow this summer became a reality.

Moving back to the home front our on-board Thespians entertained us with "Meet Me in St. Louis"; while some of us have seen roller skating in "The Cars" while getting "The Knack" and "The Champ" finally wins. "Kramer vs. Kramer", Dustin Hoffman, and Sally Field won Oscars and "The Who" came to Ames.

As you look at the many passengers riding on the LVA Express, various examples of "Real People" can be seen. Girls with their high-heeled cowboy boots and others with their curly hair and baggie jeans. Whiskers and beards were a big hit as Lake View prepared to celebrate its Centennial during the summer of 1980.

Sit back, relax, and let us punch your ticket for an enjoyable ride on the LVA Express. Join us "On the Right Track" through 1979-80.

Volleyball was added to the list of activities available to the junior high girls of LVA. After practicing with Mr. Thomas and Mr.Stevens for several weeks the girls were ready for their first match. Mr. Kaiser accompanied the team as they played two matches with each Wall Lake and Battle Creek. Both the 7th and 8th grade teams won all of the matches they played. It looks like the new sport is to the liking of the girls of LVA.

The main concern of the Student Council during the school year was attempting to put together a student handbook. As they were to find out, much thought and decision-making is put into such a project.

The Student Council was also responsible for Homecoming activities and several dances throughout the year. Among these were the Christmas and Valentine dances.

Most importantly, these students learned that by working together you can get things done and have fun at the same time.

The LVA FFA demonstrated leadership and muscle as they embarked on the demanding project of establishing a windbreak around the new athletic complex. A total of 1,000 trees were planted by the group. The annual fruit sale produced 950 boxes of oranges, grapefruit, and apples to be sorted and delivered. The chapter also welcomed over 140 to their Parent-Member Banquet.

Several members attended the National FFA Convention in Kansas City and the State Leadership Conference in Des Moines. The chapter is proud to have three members, Darrell Freese, Greg Gerdes, and Larry Hauser awarded the Iowa Farmer Degree. Several other members received proficiency awards for their work throughout the year.

THESPIANS ASK US TO "MEET

T-Shirts Promote Play; Large Audiences

Mrs. Becki Kaiser's first attempt at directing a high school play, "Meet Me In St. Louis", proved to be a successful venture for all.

Hours of practice turned into long night rehearsals on top of daily homework. The cast built most of the set themselves and had to find their own costumes and props. Locating props proved to be quite a task. Many were borrowed from people in the community. The sofa and chair were borrowed from the Huss's downtown store.

As the audience browsed through their programs they ran across the name Dearney Wetzstein. Dearney was the cat in this year's cast and provided much entertainment during rehearsals.

As student director, Marsha Meyer never figured on becoming an actress overnight. At the last moment Lori Mowry became ill and it was up to Marsha to fill in opening night.

The comedy proved to be a big hit as the play was well attended both evenings.

LAS VEGAS DEPOT SITE

Thespians and Musicians Bring

A spotlight hits the stage, an echoing drum roll fills the room. A flashy encee appears from behind the curtain and introduces tonight's acts --Eclipse, that fantastic new jazz ensemble, and the Dr. Dancin' Dance Company; also, a brilliant new mime team and the Swing Gang, a dynamic group of young singers.

Two naive farm kids run away to be performers but fall into the evil hands of a casino owner and lose everything they own.

Between diseasters, heartaches, and laughs the cast manages to sing and dance their way through the show.

Sound like a Las Vegas show? Close. It's this year's swing show, Caesar's Place, a musical comedy which takes place in Las Vegas.

Many people from all areas of the fine arts were involved in the show. Even the script was written by the students.

Volleyball began its second year as LVA's fall sport in 1979. The varsity girls compiled a record of 5-9 and lost to Lytton in the tournament. The JV was more successful, putting together a record of 10-3.

The girls showed a lot of improvement by the end of the season. Crowd enthusiasm grew, making the future look optimistic for LVA's newest sport.

HOMECOMING '79

& Sandy Blessington Reign

Spirit Week kicked off the Homecoming Activities with Monday designated as Hat Day. Filling the remainder of the week was Cowboys and Indians Day,Mix-n-Match Day, Dress-Up Day and Red and Black Day.

Slogans such as "Sack-Em-Up" and "Plant-em Under" were painted on downtown business windows by members of each class on Tuesday.

Wednesday night classes gathered to build their floats for Friday's parade.

Skit Night was held on Thursday with skits cheers, crowning of the queen, and running through the flaming hoop.

The Freshmen won the skit competition;followed by the Seniors, Sophomores, and Juniors.

Renae Schulte was crowned Homecoming Queen by Dave Ried. Renae was escorted by Darrell Freese. Attendants were Sandy Blessington, escorted by Kevin Schmidt; and Carolyn Manthe escorted by David Boom.

Sunshine greeted Friday afternoon's parade. Once again the Freshmen were awarded first, this time for their float. The Juniors were second and the FFA entry third.

The Blackhawks were defeated 22-12 by the Galva Blue Devils. Fans were rewarded with the season's first touchdown to add to the excitement.

Opus III provided entertainment for the Homecoming Dance following the game. Mr. Yeager and Mr. Smith sat in with the band until their drummer arrived. The Student Council was unhappy with the quality of music being played and promised the student body another dance later in the school year.

FOR FOOTBALL

Tackles; Chosen Most Valuable Player

Even though it was a long, winless season in 1979; there is a light at the end of the tunnel. First year Head Coach Bruce Stevens welcomed 13 upperclassmen and 19 freshmen to preseason workouts. Dave Ried was injured before the first game and lost for the season. Many underclassmen took over skill positions and gained valuable experience.

The Blackhawks played with enthusiasm and fought to the end. Senior Darrell Freese led the squad on both offense and defense. He ran for 495 yards and made 107 tackles. Sophomore Randy Schmidt led in passing statistics.

Yes, there is a light at the end of the tunnel. Good luck to Coach Stevens and his Football Blackhawks.

JUNIORS CONSTRUCT A

Spring Lake Country Club

Staircases of stargarland hung from the ceiling of the Spring Lake Country Club as the juniors presented "Stairway to Heaven" as the theme of the 1980 Junior-Senior Prom. Prom-goers were treated to a banquet of pork chops, baked potato, salad, rolls, ice cream, and milk.

Music for the evening's dance was provided by Benson. A presentation of the senior class will was made by Mr.Smith and the senior's prophecy by Mr. Thomas.

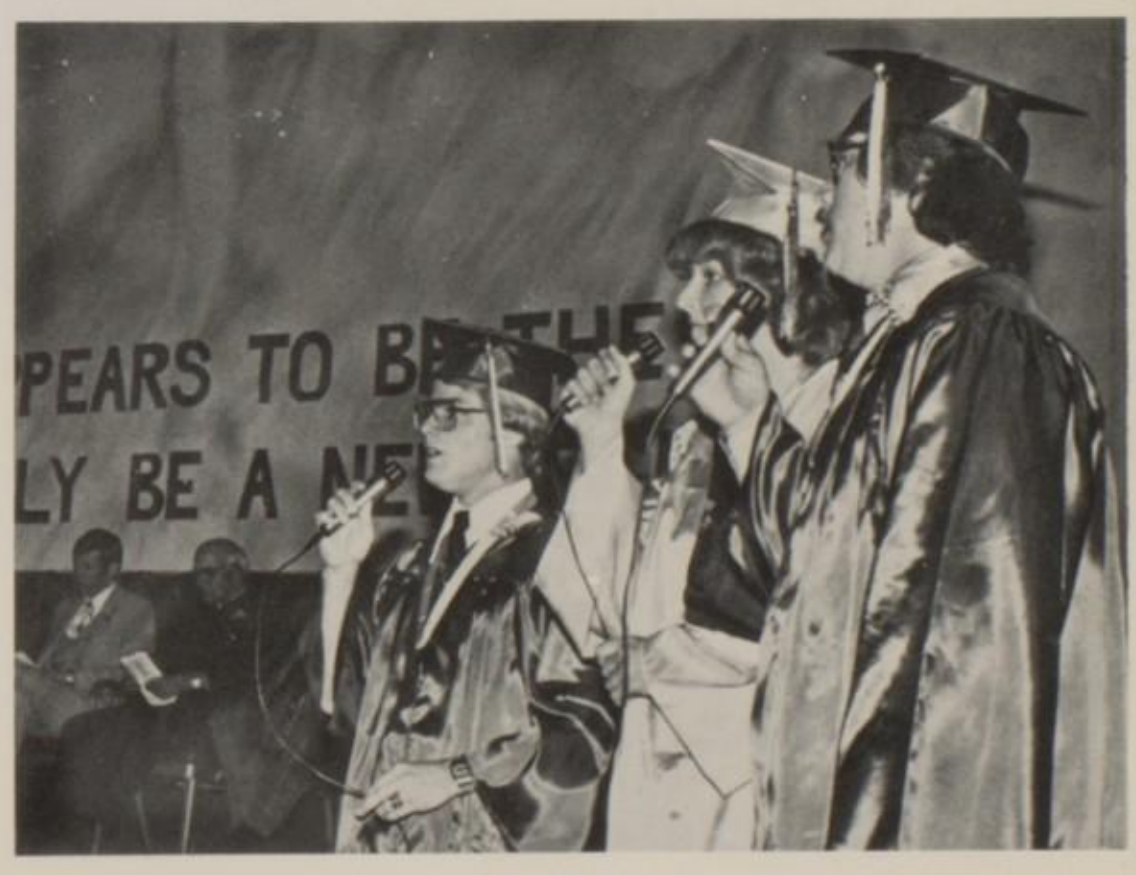
1980 REACH DESTINATION

Wernimont and Gerdes Look to Future



We remember what it was like to be new around high school . . . The unfamiliar faces, the searching of hallways and classes just longing to find someone to share our uncertainities with. We finally felt a need of belonging whenever anyone smiled. Soon we began to fit right in to these strange, sophisticated surroundings. Along with our confidence, came the ability to make decisions, and . . . a lot of fun!

There were classmates we liked right from the beginning, and those who took a little getting used to . . . there were teachers we admired and those we survived. Most of all there were the good friends we made here,and all the good times we shared. Times when we won together, and times when we lost, times when we worried together and times celebrated. . . but how do you say "Thanks" for all the beautiful memories?

We remember autumns when football and Homecoming were the main events . . . Winters with snow vacations and basketball tournaments. Springs that dazzled us with the promise of prom and graduation. And summer vacation . . . .

Looking back, we're going to miss this old school and all the colorful things that have happened to us in just these few years. It won't be easy saying good-bye, but we have so much more to explore about the world and ourselves.

As we start on our way, we know that wherever we go, whatever we do, these days spent right here will be the most memorable part of our lives.

So, Class of 1980, as we move on to new places and times, we hope special memories like these go with you.

We made it!!! We have reached our destination. Graduation is a memory. We hope you have enjoyed your ride on the LVA Express. Along the way there have been some special passengers whose assistance kept us "On the Right Track". We would like to take this opportunity to express our appreciation for all their help.

We would like to thank Mr. Ryle Smith for the art work for our cover. Also, thanks to Rajean Nelson, Tammy Wessman, Carol Becker, Janean Evans, Gayle Altfillisch, and Sandy Blessington for providing their fine works of art for the division pages.

Special recognition to Miss Anderson and her afternoon kindergarten class especially Amy Riedell and Amy Peterson for posing for our opening page picture. Also thanks to The Gallery and Shirley Walrod for her patience and time.

Finally, we would like to express our sincere thanks to Mrs. Connie Bradshaw for helping us compile our book of memories.

Your editors,

LuAnn Buse
Sharon Daiker
